

Idaho Master Naturalists – Pend Oreille Chapter
2013 Volunteer Opportunities

Revised Feb 2013

Project	Leader	I will volunteer	Times best for you
Waterlife Discovery Center(WDC)
Development & Maintenance
-General summer yard care
Weekly Wed. mornings in summer	Pete G
-Winter sidewalk snow removal
as needed	Dave Y
-Landscaping & plant care
weekly during the summer	Gail B
-Historical documentation of grounds
	Clem Y
-Long term facility planning
	Pete G
-Native plant book library
	Valle
 Chapter Administration
-Administrator for the Chapter's Face book page
			Needed
 WDC Open House
We are planning to have a public announcement for an open house on a Saturday in early summer to promote the Center and to increase the visibility of NM. A number of activities have been suggested and more are needed.
Open House Activities- Plant identification trail walk with Derek (2-3 time during the day), Kids trail walk with Valle (2-3 times during the day), 5-10 minute visitor briefings for a Center overview, fly casting clinic with Don C, ID F&G lake fish management programs, and other suggestions are welcome.
-Volunteer to coordinate			Needed
-Activity leaders			Needed
 Science Projects
-WDC nature trail plant identification and guide brochure development
			Derek
-Develop a waterfowl identification and education program with Carry Hugo of BLM. Details still need to be worked out			Needed
-Vegetation Monitoring			Derek A
Smith Creek & Deep Creak areas-Details to follow
-N ID rare plant surveys			Derek A
On ID F & G properties-Details to follow

-Clark Fork Delta Restoration Kathy Cousins

-ID F&G Multi-species base line inventory for rare species. For current details go to our chapter web site

<https://fishandgame.idaho.gov/baseline><<https://fishandgame.idaho.gov/content/baseline>>

Details to follow Michael Lucid ID F&G

Community Education Projects

-Public presentations at Sandpoint Library, Feb, Mar, Apr

 -Hager Lake Project Derek A

 -Blue Bird Project Clem & Lori

-MN information booth at 2013 Fair needed

-Field trip to David Douglas exhibit at Spokane Museum of Arts & Culture - Complete 1-16-13

-2013 MN member training classes. Karen

-Water Festival at Riley Creek on Thur & Fri, 3rd week of May for 5th grade students needed

-School class WDC field trips to be added as notified - coordinator Selma

Advanced Training Programs

-Chapter calendar will update listings as they become available

Volunteer activities with cooperating organizations

-Friends of Scotchman Peaks update their events and activities regularly on their web site. Go to www.scotchmanpeaks.org Planned 2013 activities include;

 -Trail work at Pluck Ridge, Star Peak and Little spar Lake

 -Noxious weed control

 -Wolverine Study-monitoring about 15 stations

-ID Conservation League

 -Needs volunteers to lead summer hikes. Contact Nancy Dooley at 208.265.9565 ndooley@idahoconservation.org <http://www.idahoconservation.org>

 -Water Stewards

 -Stream monitoring. Must take the training class first then select a location you want to monitor.

-Army Corps of Engineers, Taylor Johnson

 -Campfire programs at several sites

-Audubon annual bird count

 -Late Dec every year contact

 Richard Del Carlo 290 1405 or rich@peregrinetree.com

-American Kestrel Nest Box Program info at www.kestrel.peregrinefund.org